EXHIBITION and SEMINAR SESSIONS

Register today to attend this exhibition and unique networking event for the global hazardous area industry.

Attendance gives access to the very latest products and services on show at this international forum, the largest dedicated hazardous area-related event taking place in the UK this year.

All pre-registered visitors will receive a show guide and access to the exhibition – go to www.hazardex-event.co.uk for exhibitor and booking details. Registration is available on the day, but pre-registration is preferred.

Other than the Exhibition, attendance via this special invitation gives access to Conference Stream 2, but not to the main Conference or Gala Dinner and Awards Ceremony.

Access to the Hazardex Exhibition will only be allowed through the formal registration process. Complete this registration form and submit it via email or the website www.hazardex-event.co.uk

CONFERENCE

Alternatively, book to come as a Conference delegate, and hear the views of the leading authorities in the field. 2021 has our most authoritative content to date – don't miss this opportunity!

Delegate packages are available and include all meals and refreshments. Book for both days and you get a fully inclusive package of accommodation and a place at the Gala Dinner with entertainment.

To view the Conference programme and to book your place as a delegate, please visit: www.hazardex-event.co.uk or call Russell Goater on +44 (0) 1732 359990
